Christianity—a Thrilling Adventure

If you dare to believe the revolutionary teachings of Christ—which are poles apart from many of the fundamental tendencies of our time, which are scoffed at and derided by the crowds around us—if you dare to believe that what Christ said was true and to put His faith to the test, what a thrilling adventure Christianity becomes! It means no less than helping to save a civilization—which has in it much that is infinitely precious—by bringing to the profound problems of the day a wisdom gained through knowledge of Christ and a vision caught from His presence. What a fearful and thrilling task for those who, looking into Christ's face and taking His hand, are ready to walk with Him and make the great adventure!—Hon. Francis B. Sayre.

Prayer for the New Year

THINE, O Lord, are the times we measure off by days and years; for though the years pass, yet are we ever with Thee, embosomed in Thy beauty, love, and power. The generations come and go, returning to dust, but Thy laws abide, and above and around us Thy love is not moved. O Lord, we would look back only to give thanks, and forward to take courage. Amid chance and change we have been attended by an ever present Help, wiser than our own. Our hurts have been healed and our burdens borne by a strength kinder than we know.

O God, live within us yet more vividly; that so we may attain by Thy blessed in-working. May the dawning year be new indeed, with new visions of truth, a new wonder of Thy love, and a new service to our fellow man. May our homes be better ordered, our work better done, and our faith more firmly fixed in Thee; that life may show us its worth and wonder, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.—Newton.

MINUTES OF PACIFIC SOUTH-WEST AREA COMMITTEE
MEETING OF THE FELLOWSHIP OF RECONCILIATION

January 4, 1944

Present:- Allan Hunter; Gale Seaman; Benjamin Miller; Charles Mackintosh; Osmyn Stout; David Henley; Harold Stone Hull; Elmer Gorman (visitor); Edgar Evans; Norman Taylor; Glenn E. Smiley; David Walden (visitor).

Attention was called by the chairman to a letter from Dorothy Detzer, urging people to write to their congressmen relative to S.R. 100, S.R. 203, and the poll tax bill, and it was agreed that such notice should be placed in a Newsletter.

Also, the Newsletter is to contain information regarding the 10,000 deaths per week in Bengal, from starvation, and is to urge people to make contributions through the A.F.S.C., who already have a service program in said state. Contributions are to be sent to David Henley.

Attention of the Church Federation, (Muelder), Bruce McGuire, and the Socialist Party, is to be called to the above, in letters from the secretary.

Dillon Myer of the W.R.A. is to be in Los Angeles January 21 through the 28th, and is to speak in Town Hall on the night of the 21st. The secretary was requested to arrange a breakfast with Mr. Myer, if possible.

Discussion of the race question consumed a good portion of the Committee Meeting, resulting in the appointment of a sub-committee, composed of Walter Muelder, Floyd Covington, and Willis Fisher, to re-think our whole approach, and make recommendations for action.

George Maurer was appointed chairman of the Sub-Committee on Camps, and he was empowered to choose a committee of five, with whom he could plan for our summer activities. Ted Evans, Norman Taylor, and Walter Raitt were suggested as helpers of experience. Raitt in particular was suggested as business manager.

Two records (four sides), "An Invasion of California," representing long and careful effort on the part of F.O.R. actors and radio people, headed by Hugh Beaumont, and John Laing, were played. It was moved: "That they be approved for exclusive use with groups interested in exploring non-violent substitutions for war."

Page 2, Minutes Area Committee Meeting, January 4, 1944

This policy is to be pursued until after the war, when it is hoped that they may be released for general circulation. However, the records must first be played for Al Wirin, to test their legality, and also sent to New York, and, if possible, played over this week end to Douglas Steere, Kirby Page, and Fritz Kunkel.

Respectfully submitted,

Glenn E. Smiley

Dear Kirby:

In October you sent me a note welcoming me back to Southern California and also sent material about the conference which you are planning for July 19 to 25 at Big Bear. I appreciate both the note of welcome and also the information about the conference. I'm not at all sure that I can be present but hope that the next few weeks may make it possible for me to largely determine just what summer schedule I can keep. Some day when we both have the opportunity to do so I wish I might sit down with you to talk about both this conference and the general work.

Dear Kirby Page,

I am writing you this word from both Ken and me that you may have our latest news. Ken has asked that you have this direct word because you have been such a real force and inspiration in his growth and thinking that led to his present decision.

You had Ken's original statement sent to his draft board in the beginning of his relations with his draft board. So you have his views which briefly were that he had to be a conscientious objector not only to war, but to conscription as well. The latter made it impossible to accept assignment in C.P.S. Camp. His refusal became effective this Oct. 19th. His trial was held on Dec. 6th. His sentence was 4 years. He was moved from Philadelphia County Prison on Dec. 29th. to Petersburgh Federal Reformatory Petersburgh, Va. where he now is. Ken has been in the graduate school of the University of Pennsylvania for the last year and a half working in the field of Sociology.

I have been for this some time Executive Secretary of the Middle Atlantic Region
Student Christian Movement with my office in Philadelphia. I followed Louise Pfuetze in this job whom you know as well.

Ken was superb in his trial. His hearing was held before Judge George A. Welsh. His lawyer was Mr. Walter Longstreth. At his lawyer's insistence a Court record was made of the trial. You may want to see it sometime. I think Ken did the cause of Justice, Democracy, Peace and Religious Pacifying,
as well as those who believe in him personally, great honor. Words can not express my deep pride in him and his stand. This was the only way for Ken. We both believe we have acted in light of the highest we have been able to understand. Somehow because of this the sustaining power of the Moral Union in which we both believe, seemed to uphold us in these last days. Also we want you to know that courage and faith and vision such as yours has been a great source of strength for us, and will continue to be so, for us, in the days ahead.

Ken joins me in wishing for you all the greatest gifts of happiness in the new year. Appreciative yours,
Sally Cuthbertson

Dear Kirby Page,

Thank you for your letter — and for sending me the copies of the Christian Century reprints.

After studying & working in the program of integration of Nisei into American Community life, ^{shy the churches} for nearly six months, I have come almost ^{to the conclusion} that we have to go either forward (more ~~into~~ basic integration) or backward (toward segregated ^{church} as a first necessary step). ^{what} we are doing in Chicago is a long term, slow, cautious approach — go between between the Nisei and the churches, which is a necessary work but which does not warrant 7 or 8 full-time workers. The two Nisei ministers on the staff, Rev. Jitsuo Monkawa from Poston and I, feel strongly that our contribution and service is severely circumscribed & limited, that we are not putting forth all our efforts and abilities when there is a need for the ministry that we can render in a limited way.

We feel we should be appointed as an associate minister (not to privilege in Wises, however) as you suggest in your article or better still - be given a church where a church is needed. We see great areas near the hoop in Chicago where there is crying need for such an inter-racial, inter-class church.

Is this just a dream of the idealist, or of a restless soul?

Sincerely yours,

Hideo

Dear friend,

We have been very much disappointed in the quality of the training and the lack of progress made at the Training School. The course has been most superficial in that no serious attempt has been made to relate the program of training to the more fundamental problem of economic and psychological adjustments necessary to any successful program of rehabilitation. Group work and folk dancing are not going to rehabilitate devastated Europe.

It has been admitted that, as yet, no definite or specific goals have evolved toward which the program might point to fulfillment. That becomes a very serious matter when the program is one third completed. The administration is still "feeling" its way.

The course in Religious Resources is important only in so far as it helps students training for this work to maintain personal stability and poise and hope in the midst of devastating circumstances.

We have been urged and in certain instances (as in field work of a religious nature at Hunter's Point) been required to engage in activities that not only require the expenditure of much energy but detracts seriously from the effective realization of the true goal of the outlined course.

In an effort to work out a compromise so that my peculiar background experience (peculiar in the sense that I was the only student at the school with a business background) could be used effectively in training for Post-War Rehabilitation work, I met with complete failure, since any opportunities open to me in the Cooperative movement would be considered "Commercial," and therefore, could not be deemed acceptable field work by the school. There are jobs in the Cooperative Movement that would be acceptable (its educational program for example) but one must work into them. Business organizations operate that way and I would not feel justified in asking that established and well considered policies be set aside to meet my needs and ambitions.

This unsatisfactory situation has been intensified by the fact that we have had to live in only one small room for the past four months.

I am still most anxious to help in some way in Rehabilitation work and I am most appreciative of the help you have secured for us. However, we felt it necessary to discontinue the present course.

We sincerely hope favorable conditions will materialize during the course of the year so that we might avail ourselves of the necessary training and be able to finance the program in order that we may make further plans to do rehabilitation work.

I have accepted a position in the Quality Control Department of the H. J. Heinz Corporation and have, by reason of its being considered an essential industry ~~but~~, succeeded in getting an apartment through the War Housing Bureau. As soon as we get straightened around financially we will save as much money as possible so that we may re-enter training if and when the opportunity arises.

We both regret very much the necessity of this decision, not only because of the possible position it might put you in, but because we wanted so much to do this type of useful service.

Sincerely yours,
Bill Stockey.

The Christmas Challenge, 1943

THAT ALL MAY KNOW THE COST OF PEACE AND FREEDOM

We know the cost of war and slavery:

A world moved by hate
and impoverishing isolation,
A world torn by fear
and the spectacle of human carnage.
A world ravaged by hunger
and wasteful destruction,
A world whose cruel logic works out in slum and battlefield.

For centuries we have paid.

We must proclaim the cost of peace and freedom:

A world moved by love
uniting all in brotherhood,
A world led by justice
providing for each according to need.
A world planned for order
disciplining the lust for power,
A world whose irresistible logic is peace and freedom for all.

Thus we accept the challenge:

"... Lord, I am ready to go with Thee, both into prison, and to death.
... And he was reckoned among the Transgressors . . ." LUKE 22:33; 37.

Together let our faith profess

"... ON EARTH PEACE TO MEN OF GOOD WILL."

Dear Dr. Page:

Attached is the check from the Union Church Forum and with it goes the appreciation of the Committee for your superb address and stimulating forum period. Our chairman, Prof. Herbert E. Marsh, has asked me to write his apology and regret in not being present and greeting you. He is suffering with the flu and called me to speak of his admiration for you and to convey his regrets.

In addition I want to put in writing the action of our Church Council. It was voted to request you to continue your Sunday morning addresses if your schedule could permit you. The personal expressions of appreciation by various officers of the church before this action was taken were testimonies I cannot rephrase, but I want you to know that our people are sincerely grateful for your sacrifice to be helpful here.

I wish our offerings had been more self-respecting and that the total of $64 might have been more representative of the character of this church and our gratitude.

Count on me if I can be helpful in the promotion of any enterprises in which you are engaged.

With every good wish to you and Mrs. Page, I am

Though I have been in several of your meetings, I have spared you by admiring you from the crowd.

I am delighted that it will be possible for you to be with us in the Missouri Pastors School this summer -July 10 to 14. Though I will write you again regarding details, the class sessions begin on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and end on Friday at noon -two sessions each day of an hour each. If you will give me your itinerary near that date I will be glad to give you more specific travel directions, since Fayette is not on any main line railroad.

I am serving the school as dean. We should be happy if you would lead a class in Personal Relations. As the program shapes up it may be that we would like some leadership on the Post War problems as well. We had Paul Hutchinson in a course last summer.

Dear Kirby:

As you know, each year during June and July the American Friends Service Committee sponsors a series of Institutes of International Relations. They usually last for ten or twelve days. This coming season we will have four Institutes on the West Coast, three in the Midwest, and six in the East. They are located at college and university centers in the main. One, for example, is at Wellesley College, another one at Mills College in Oakland, California.

We are writing to ask whether you might possibly be available to speak at one or more of these Institutes in June and July. The final decision about Institute speakers and faculty personnel is made by local Institute Committees. These Committees, however, have asked us to inquire about the availability of certain people. If your schedule would permit you to serve in this important way, we would be very pleased to know about it and to make this information known to Institute Committees in different parts of the country.

We are having a meeting of our staff from various parts of the United States starting January 25th. A reply from you before that date would be greatly appreciated.

Jan. 18, 1944,

Dear Friend Kirby:

I think we can best make the May 22-29 at Quaker Hill. We shall be looking forward to it with keen anticipation. And I know it will give me some of the "grounding" I need.

I was "40" Jan. 12th, and you know "Life begins at 40"- and in some ways I'd like to make that come true. For in some ways I have really not yet begun to live- and I think I've barely scratched the surface of Prayer and Meditation.

We shall surely do our best to make that date available.

Dear Dr. Paige:

The Fullerton Junior College YWCA is planning an International Dinner to be held February 16, 1944. Our idea behind such an undertaking is to replenish our rather deficient treasury, and at the same time, help the junior college students and faculty become better acquainted with the interest and action YWCA takes in world affairs.

The affair is to consist of a dinner which will be made up of various dishes from different countries of the world; a program, likewise made up of numbers from different countries; and climaxed by a speech concerning world affairs.

We would like very much to have you for our speaker, but before we can complete arrangements we will have to know how much you would charge for such an engagement. That problem is of the utmost concern to us.

Of course we hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Kirby Page,
P. O. Box 247,
La Habra, California.

Dear Mr. Page:

The Curriculum Committee has authorized the issuance of a new series of Older Young People's Elective courses. In format these will be similar to the four units by Cheverton on "The Bible and Social Living." The first of these is to be ready for use in the fall quarter of this year.

We are asking you to write this unit for us. I am sending you the description of the unit which has been approved by our Curriculum Committee. You will understand, of course, that this description is in no sense an outline of the course, but is to be the official guiding document. In other words, the factors mentioned here must be taken into account.

The unit is to be thirteen sessions in length. There is to be only one piece of material for both pupil and teacher and it will appear as a paper bound book of ninety-six pages. There are eighty-eight pages actually devoted to the treatment of the lesson. Allowing for titles, sub-headings, etc., you may figure on about 300 words per page. Each new lesson should begin at the top of a page. That will mean that you may have seven pages for most of the lessons but that some of them must be held to six pages.

Each chapter should begin with some Scripture passage which in a genuine way sets the tone for the theme of that chapter and is more than mere supplementary material.

There is a possibility that we may include a few simple line drawings as illustrations if you have suggestions for these. In this case, it will be necessary for you to allow space for the drawings.

This unit must, of course, take into account the current ~~scene~~. It is expected, however, that the course will stand for about ten years; so an effort should be made not to make it so timely that it will be dated a year from now.

While these electives are being prepared primarily for older young people, it is our hope that they may also be used by regular adult classes who so desire. Consequently the young people's emphasis should not be too pronounced.

This description was brought up before the issuance of Dr. Fosdick's book, "On Being a Real Person." Because of the marked similarity, it is thought that this unit should have a different title from the one approved by the Curriculum Committee. We will be happy to have your suggestions as to a new title.

The absolute deadline on which I can possibly receive this copy in time to release it to the printer is June 1. I am sorry to ask you to do such a big job on such a short schedule. However, the outline just got through the devious processes ~~esq~~ of the Curriculum Committee, and now the production date is urgently upon us. We can think of no person in the brotherhood who could do this job as effectively as you and make the contribution which you are capable of making. The writer's fee for this unit is $200.00. Will you please let me know soon whether or not you can do this? We ask the writers of these units to submit for our consideration a tentative outline of the course, before they begin writing. Allowing for time that we must be out of the office, we should have about two weeks for the consideration of this outline. I shall not give you any date on which this would be due except at your own convenience, that is: allow time for us to have it and get it back to you and still give you time to do the job of writing.

If you can find it possible to do this for us, you will be making a real contribution to the life of our brotherhood. We certainly hope that you can do it.

Sincerely yours,

Ronald E. Osborn

PS - Under separate cover we are sending a copy of one of the Cheverton units. This will give you an idea of the format but it is not a good job of writing.

ON BEING A PERSON

Autumn - 44

1. Desired outcome-

The desired outcome of this unit is (1) an awareness of the significant forces which release or thwart personality (and a desire to learn more about these forces); (2) the ability to cope with the situations which thwart the development of wholesome personality; and (3) the cultivation of the resources of Christian faith for the mastery of life.

2. Description of unit-

By a popular but scientifically acceptable survey of the significant forces which thwart or release personality, this unit should help the student (1) understand the effect of these forces upon his life; (2) determine to develop a wholesome Christian personality; (3) learn techniques which are religiously and psychologically sound for fullest personal development. This unit should be written from the practical point of view. Some principles it can only introduce, but it should create the desire for further study. It should help the ~~student~~ realize that the Christian way of life makes for the most wholesome, competent personality.

3. Factors to be considered-

A. Desire of every person for fullest possible development and expression of his personality.

1. Christian doctrine of worth of personality
2. Right of every man to this development.

B. Factors which thwart development of personality

1. Unwholesome family and cultural background
2. Discrimination based on racial, religious, cultural, or economic differences.
3. Economic conditions (a decent living is the material base for the good life)
4. Fear of war in time of peace; effect on soldiers in combat - wounds, psychoneuroses; effect on society - hatred, fear, sorrow, moral lapse.
5. Liquor and narcotics
6. Prevalent tolerance toward sexual license.
7. Dispositions of the spirit - harmful effect of selfishness, uncontrolled temper, impurity, pride, laziness, etc.

C. Factors which release

1. Opportunity to have enriching fellowship with other persons
2. Sound economic base
3. Christian faith and way of life
4. Wholesome family life
5. Education and culture
6. Good health
7. Participation in building Christian Social order

I am returning my questionnaire. We are having Annual Conference in this church June 14th to 19th so I would not be at liberty until after that. I think you really have something of the greatest importance in this series of retreat. I shall do everything possible to get to one of those camps.

I have recently mailed you a copy of my new book "More Handles of Power". Abingdon-Cokesbury have not yet gotten out the cards that go with the book so I am sending you a set from those that we used here at the church. The movement is spreading very rapidly as hundreds of new ministers try out this new technique. Your brief but pointed word which appeared on the jacket of the first book and which was used in much of the advertising was of the greatest possible value in making the book widely known. If you care to drop me a line after reading this next one including something that the publishers could quote, I should be very happy indeed.

Dear Mr. Page:

I am very much interested in the series of retreat you are planning during the summer, and I have checked three possible dates and places which would be convenient for my wife, and myself if we can know of the certainty of the place within the next month or so. Will we be able to know for certain that one of the retreats will be held at the suggested site at that time?

I attended the retreat you held at Columbus, Ohio a few years ago with my wife and a number of students from our Wesley Foundation at Ohio State University. You may remember the group that brought its lunch and took up much of your time discussing some of the issues at that time. I was very much pleased with the way the retreat was carried out and so were the students present. That experience has led me to a belief that we should have some such experience for the youth leaders with a number of adults to be sure, but a sufficiently large percentage of youth so that there would not be adult ideas and fancies in a too large percent. Would you be interested - say a year from this summer in helping our National Conference carry out one or two or three possible retreat primarily for our youth leaders? Of course it would not be limited to our own denomination, but would be an effort to secure the sort experience which would motiviate a real movement of youth based upon fellowship rather than organization. Of course, organization is necessary to carry certain of our activities ~~that~~ I feel that it rather submerges the real emphasis upon spiritual fellowship that ought to be the motivating force within the lives of our youth. If you feel at all favorable about this suggestion, would you care to send me some suggestions as to how this might be done, the nature of the retreat and whether or not you could assist in some of them. Also, what expense would be involved from your standpoint in carrying through such leadership? I would like to have our council consider this at their next meeting which comes about the middle of February and although this is rather a short notice, if you have any thoughts of the matter, I would appreciate receiving them so that I could share them with the group at that time. We would need to start planning between now and summer for a year from this summer if we are to make our retreat the sort of thing that I have in mind.

There is something that just occurred to me which I would like to ask you about. When I was at the Wesley Foundation at Ohio State University, we ordered a number

My dear Kirby:

As you may know the government has now set up two camps for C.O.s. - one at Mancos, Colorado and the second at Lapine, Oregon. Some months ago I was instrumental in having the Rev. Christian H. Kehl appointed chaplain at Mancos. We of the Federal Council assumed responsibility for his salary - $200 per month. Mr. Kehl took his wife to Mancos and the two of them are living outside the Camp area. For one reason or another it may be necessary for me to suggest that a change be made at Mancos. Also - Selective Service is looking to us to furnish a chaplain for the camp at Lapine, Oregon.

The question is this - do you know of a minister who might consider an appointment as chaplain to either one of these camps at a modest salary, say one hundred dollars a month? The need for the moment is more urgent at Lapine than at Mancos. I would prefer a man who had been out of school a little while and one who would look upon this camp situation as a very real challenge. It is a difficult assignment and the person doing work of this kind would have to have a sense of mission. Whether or not the person is himself a C.O. is not important. The important thing is that he have an understanding mind and an aptitude for pastoral counselling.

Should you have any recommendations to make I would appreciate hearing from you at your early convenience.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Page,

I am deeply grateful for the gift of the two books Living Creatively and Living Prayerfully and also for the interesting pamphlet How Does God Deal With Evildoers? I find them full of very interesting and inspirational material. I certainly appreciate the wonderful collections of fine poetry and prose which I find in the daily reading section of both books.

I also want to thank you again for the ride you gave me from Redlands to Pomona that Sunday night three weeks ago. I had only a ten minute wait at Pomona before I caught a through bus to Los Angeles. I had no trouble finding the place where I was to stay that night.

I know this letter is overdue but my studying for semester examinations this past week had preference over everything else.

My speech teacher here at the Texas College of Mines was interested when I mentioned that I had met you while I was in California. She is Mrs. George Ball the mother of a George Ball whom you knew when he went to Northwestern. I have never had the privilege of meeting George Ball but I hear that he is in the army now here at Fort Bliss. I think he is doing entertainment and public relations work.

Thanks once again for the gift of the books.

Dear Mr. Page:

I am extremely sorry that poor health requires you to cancel your speaking engagements. Of course, we will excuse you, with appreciation for your letting us know at once.

We not merely regret that we shall not have you with us for the day of fellowship and inspiration, but are very sorry that your extremely valuable work must be held up at a time when all the forces of Christian living are so much needed. However, we trust and pray that with restored health and vigor following a period of rest, you will ultimately be able to do more for the Kingdom than by trying to proceed under "forced draft." Your time of rest will not be time lost in any sense of the word.

Kenneth Doctor joins me in regards and best wishes for your early return to health.

Dear Mr Page,

We would very much like to have you as guest speaker at the Mid-Winter Southern California Girl Reserve Conference to be held Saturday, March 11, at the Long Beach YWCA beginning at 9:30 AM. Our theme will be "Better Women for Tomorrow".

We would also like to have you lead a discussion group on either "Racial Understanding" or "Spiritual Resources"-whichever you prefer.

This conference will bring a large number of girls together; so we feel that this is a fine opportunity to present a real challenge to youth.

Will you please let us know at your earliest convenience whether you can accept our invitation?

Thank-you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Audrey Hancock,
Orange YWCA Sect.

January 27, 1944

My dear Harold Bremer:

I am immensely impressed with your suggestion and will gladly plan to save time for three or more spiritual retreats for youth leaders in the summer of 1945 if the plan is carried through. By that time the people of this nation will be in deeper tragedies than we can now understand, and the problems facing us will be titanic.

It seems clear to me that the need is for unhurried gatherings for fellowship in worship, discussion and re-creation. There are many other conferences on institutional programs and plans for action. Desperately we need quiet fellowship.

Let me urge that you consider also several retreats in various sections of the country for adult workers with youth, combined with a generous proportion of highly selected mature young people. Here again for the primary purpose of fellowship. In 1945 East Sunday comes on April 1st and perhaps immediately after that date sectional spiritual retreats for workers with youth could be held across the nation. So far as possible these retreats should be inter-denominational and intersectional. Such gatherings would make far more effective the summer retreats.

So far as I am concerned, mere travel expense is all that I would require.

I shall make this important matter a subject of much prayer.

The old book accounts have all been closed.
So rest at ease!

Expectantly,

*I suggest that 100 be the maximum attendance
at any Retreat.*

We've owed you a letter for some time. Why? Well, the moral and financial support you have given this Board marks you in our thoughts as a partner to our work. Hence, we have wanted for many months to show you what we have tried to do. The enclosed brochure will tell you.

You will want to read this summary leisurely and thoughtfully. When you have finished, we would like to have your suggestions and criticisms. Only as we help maintain fair treatment for America's pacifist minority, is the continuance of our office justified.

We have valued your support in this common venture. Probably the need for many types of assistance will be no less in 1944 than in the past year. Will you help again?

Dear Kirby:

I like very much your proposal for six afternoons beginning in October. I heartily approve the proposal and will make every effort to be there. It is, however, absolutely impossible for me to be sure that I can have six afternoons on successive weeks cleared. I never can be sure as to where I shall be.

If I may sign a letter with this kind of an understanding, I shall be more than happy to do so and I have already written down the dates in my notebook.

You should not make your choice on the basis of my suggestions because of the fact that I do not control my time entirely. However, Tuesdays would be more likely to be free for me than other days.

Dear Kirby:

I think that your idea of having six afternoons together early in the Fall is a splendid one and we of course shall be delighted and honored to have you meet at First Church if such is your preference. I am handing you herewith my vote on the proposal.

At the present writing my chances for attending the Big Bear meeting seem pretty slim. This being General Conference year will take me away to Kansas City in late April and early May and my own Annual Conference in June and to the Jurisdictional Conference in Salt Lake from the twelfth of July through the seventeenth. That means that I could not get back to Los Angeles before the nineteenth and the press of added duties will make my Board reluctant to release me for another week, I am sure. In addition to these Conferences I am to do the Oklahoma City Jurisdictional for fourteen days, giving the addresses in the morning, and I am giving the keynote address for Karl Downs' inauguration as well. In the light of that terrific schedule I am quite sure that my Board will be reluctant to release me for the Bear Mountain meetings, much to my regret.

Your idea for a series of meetings next fall for pastors in Southern California appeals to me greatly and I would certainly be happy to join you in these meetings. I am enclosing the form that you sent showing my preference as to time.

Concerning the Spiritual Retreat at Big Bear, July 19 to 25, I do not think I can attend, inasmuch as my vacation comes in August. However, should I be able to arrange it, I would get in touch with you in time to be included.

I want you to know I was very happy to meet you at Whittier, having heard so much about you and having read some of your writings.

Dear Friends:

Your gracious letter of recent date has come to hand and we greatly appreciate your invitation to us to be your guests at one of your spiritual retreats this spring or summer.

We have been rejoicing with our Evelyn in her recent experience and are pleased to feel that she seems to have entered into a deep joy. We hope that she and Kay will together find life an increasingly rich experience as they grow and share together.

And now we in-laws must also get acquainted and develop a real friendship! We have been studying the schedule of retreats which you enclosed, but it as yet too early to say what we can do in the way of attendance. Two important dates for me this summer will be: June 13-16, the session or our annual conference, and July 16-22, the week for our Youth Camp, of which I am dean. Just now, the Retreats at Richmond, Indiana, and Mount Pleasant, Iowa, seem to be the most likely ones to us.

Our youngsters have not as yet decided upon the date and place for the wedding, and we at this great distance do not at all wish to dictate in any way. If we were to get together at one of the Retreats, then naturally a large part of both families would be together, but of course we do not know whether a feasible plan for the wedding could be worked out in connection with such a get-together or not. Anyway, such momentous questions are not for mere "fathers" to decide!

With appreciation for your letter and invitation, we are,

Yours cordially,

Chas. F. Johannaber,

It was good to have your note and especially kind of you to think of us in connection with the Spiritual Retreats. It is too early for us to say whether it would be possible to share in one of them, but should the opportunity come you may be certain we would count it a privilege.

As you may know I have but recently become Principal of Penn School on St. Helena Island, S. C. This is the oldest school for Negroes in the southern states and has done a pioneer job in relating education to life. We are deeply grateful to have been called to such a task. We are finding the work immensely intriguing and full of appeal for those concerns which are common to us. Mrs. Kester is serving as Supervisor of our Academic Department. Thus far our concerns have been to correlate and build up the agriculture and industrial phase of our program. Nancy, who is now nine, is happy in this new environment.

We are putting you on our Mailing List so that you may receive our literature from time to time. I hope you will keep me in touch with developments for the Retreats.

Dear Kirby:

By a piece of good fortune I have secured a remarkable manuscript by Vera Brittain which tells and interprets what is happening to some of the finest cities in Europe as a result of the new bombing technique adopted by Great Britain and the United States. This story, which Fellowship is going to bring out as a supplement to our March issue, is preceded by a Foreword written by Richard Roberts.

We are inviting you and about twenty-five others to sign this Foreword. We think it is important that in this country a group of notable Christians should go on record as protesting--now while the war is still on--the atrocities of the Allied bombing program. The former Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of Chichester (who are not pacifists) have recently denounced in the House of Lords this civilian bombing.

In order to get the terrible facts about it before a considerable number of Christian leaders in this country, we need names on our booklet that will secure attention. The booklet will be printed separately from Fellowship so that it can be used by itself and sent to people apart from our March number.

~~In order that you may know exactly what it will contain, I enclose a galley proof of Miss Brittain's pamphlet including our editorial postscript at the end.~~ Attached to this is the mimeographed Foreword that I hope you will sign. In order to make the press, I must hear from you by next Friday, February 18. Please, therefore, write or telegraph me collect if you will sign.

Yours cordially,

Nevin

FOREWORD

In his oration on Areopagus, St. Paul declared that God had made all men of one blood so that they might seek and find Him together; and this declaration remains to this day the classical clue to the right significance and conduct of life. In these days, however, it would appear that the chief end of man is mass fratricide; and all the science and technical skill that mankind has acquired with the years is devoted to the service of Death. In our time, as never before, war is showing itself in its logical colors. In the first World War, some shreds of the rules of war were observed to the end. Laws of war are intrinsically paradoxical; but so far as they went, they bore witness to the survival of some fragments of a Christian conscience among the combatants. But today the last shred of conscience appears to have disappeared. The contesting parties have apparently cast off all the former decencies and chivalries, save among their own comrades.

Something of this story is told in the following pages, and it is hoped that it may move its readers to do something about it. In some way it should be possible to apprise the public authorities of the grave and mounting anxiety of ordinary folk as they daily read the story of incessant bombing in Europe. In the meantime, Christian people should be moved to examine themselves concerning their participation in this carnival of death -- even though they be thousands of miles away. Here surely there is a call to repentance; that we have not acquainted ourselves with the verities and realities of what is being done in our name in Europe; and surely Christian obligation calls upon us to pray incessantly to God that He in His own way may bid the winds and waves of war be still.

My dear Mr. Page,

I consider it a privilege and a pleasure to add my name to your letter sent to ministers in Southern California relative to setting aside the afternoons of Oct. 3, 10, 17, 24, 31 and Nov. 7 for worship and discussion.

I have marked my datebook in accordance with the above. You can count on me.

Thanks for your card & welcome. I appreciate it.

My dear Kirby:-

My plans are so very uncertain because I am hoping to be on the way to China momentarily. I say that, even though the State Department has not granted a passport, and passports are difficult to secure these days for some areas.

I am thinking, of course, of your proposed "spiritual retreats." It seems to me increasingly important that sessions of this kind be held during these hectic days.

By the way, have you had a chance to read Paul Gerens' little BURMA DIARY, published by Harpers? No doubt you are familiar with it. The paper edition is issued at fifty cents and if you do not have it on your book table you will no doubt want to include it.

To you and to yours Bess and I send our very best regards.

Most sincerely,

Dear Kirby:

I was so glad to hear from you and to get some definite news on the book. The only poem of the five you mention which is to be included in my own book is: "John Hayes Holmes, Pacifist."

My book, "In This Our Day", is scheduled for Sept. 1st publication.
I do hope yours comes out first.
But if it does n't, the only thing you would have to do would be to get permission from Harper to reprint that one poem, and then of course include a note ~~a note~~ of mention. If this cannot be done at the last minute, it might be a good idea to do it now, just in case your book is delayed beyond the publication date of mine.

I shall be very anxious to see the copy you send. It sounds like something extremely worthwhile.
I hope the publishers get it out in time to be a graduation gift across the length and breadth of the land!

Cordially, Edith.

P.S. I am very doubtful about my attend - ance at summer conferences this year.

P.S. If you write to Harpers address your letter to Eugene Egan, who is head of the Religious Department, which is sponsoring my book.

Freeman, S.W.

My dear Dr. Page:

Thanks for your order and check
I hope to get home Sat. M^o and will send the books that day or Mon. depending on how soon I can get them.

Am in the midst of my first College visitation, and am enjoying it.
I knew you would enjoy Miss Palmer,
but she could go. Sincerely

Dear Kirby:

Thank you so much for your letter and we are so sorry to hear of your illness. You have been working so hard and you certainly deserve a good rest. However, it is unfortunate that it must be forced.

Your questions have been very helpful and I think we will have a good time together. I hope to use the questions to get the youngsters somewhat interested in the theme. It will also give a little indication as to just where they are thinking.

Thanks again for your suggestions.

Dear Dr. Page:

Dr. Anderson is absent from the city and I have been checking over details in connection with our forthcoming Pastors' Schools while he is away. You are scheduled to teach a course "Personal Religion" in the Missouri School which meets July 10-14 on the campus of Central College. Is it possible at this time for you to give us the name of a textbook you will use, so we can get it into the record? If so, we shall be very glad to receive it.

Also, if you have three or four books to which you will refer in your class and would like to have available for sale at the time of the School, give us their titles and we shall make a request of the Publishing House to have them there.

Very truly,

Dear Mr. Page:

I was very glad to receive your note of February 17th, and to learn that you were well acquainted with Howard Kester, who has just been elected Principal of our Penn School for Negroes on St. Helena Island, South Carolina.

Mrs. Cope and I would both like to contribute small amounts, say $10. each, toward Mr. Kester's expenses if he decides to attend one of your "Spiritual Retreats" next summer, but in view of his new and pressing responsibilities in connection with Penn School I would prefer first to talk over summer plans with him when we meet next week in Philadelphia or New York. I will, of course, not mention anything about helping with his expenses as I gather you would prefer to keep that confidential, but I am a little concerned that he should not undertake any more outside speaking engagements or other strenuous duties until he has gotten things firmly in hand on St. Helena Island.

I will try to write you again in a short time after conferring with Howard. Meanwhile, please accept my kind regards and best wishes for the splendid work which I know you are doing in setting up these "Spiritual Retreats" across the country.

Canadian Churches Need Ministers

Effort Being Made to Serve Some Of the Fields Which Have Been Neglected in Recent Years

TORONTO, ONT.—The churches in Canada are increasingly feeling the necessity of finding and training more ministers. Young men are not available to replace those who are at the age of retirement or who have gone to the United States in response to the shortage created there by the large number in the chaplaincy.

♦ Special evangelistic emphasis has been part of the program of many local churches. The additions reported have not been great but it has brought inspiration, faith and strength to many who have grown somewhat indifferent.

♦ There has been a sincere effort to serve some fields which have been neglected in recent years partly because of migrating population and depression. St. James Church in Manitoba has had a student minister, Donald Pratt, since the beginning of the school term in October. H. L. Richardson has been conducting regular services at a schoolhouse south of Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, with fine response on the part of the people of the community. E. P. Benoit has been holding regular services for the Milestone, Saskatchewan, church which had been closed for several years.

♦ The church at Regina, Saskatchewan, under the leadership of M. D. Dunbar, has made the last payment on the mortgage. The congregation at Windsor, Ontario, where H. T. Bridwell is minister, have made a large payment on the mortgage of the church there. Several other churches in Canada are making real progress in this direction.

♦ Mrs. J. M. Curiston is part-time field worker in Missionary work. She has been successful in organizing several new Women's Missionary groups in the Maritimes and Ontario.

♦ Halsey E. Wakelin, Ontario secretary-evangelist and minister of the Central Church in Toronto, has received 13 new members into that congregation since coming to Toronto.

♦ Hugh B. Kilgour has completed one year as Minister of Hillcrest Church in Toronto. Hillcrest celebrated their 21st Anniversary on Jan. 23 when R. G. Quiggin was guest minister. Mr. Quiggin was the first minister at Hillcrest. He is now at the First Baptist Church in Ottawa, Ontario.

♦ H. T. Bridwell, minister at Windsor, Ontario, has been appointed by the mayor to represent the Protestant churches on a city post-war planning committee.

♦ The Canadian Committee of the World Council of Churches has sponsored an evangelistic emphasis through all the churches during the period from November to March. There has been a very fine response to this united effort.

♦ Definite progress is being made toward the formation of a Canadian Council of Churches. Several of the larger communions have already taken action to come into the council. It is hoped that others will follow as their general meetings are called to meet.

♦ Disciples of Christ in Canada are pleased with the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Allan to missionary service in Jamaica. Mr. and Mrs. Allan are well known across Canada. We do not like to lose them to our work here, but we rejoice in the broader service to which they have been called.

March 3, 1944

Dear Mr. Page,

I regret that it is necessary to write this letter, but believe you would rather have it this way.

The Sunday Evening Club Program which was organized in our Community a year and a half ago has not proved out. We thought that we would be able to draw together groups of 200 to 300 people to discuss religious and international problems. We have since found that the competition that the North Shore Sunday Evening Club, seven miles away, and the problem involved where most every family has small children keeping them home at night, have been too much competition for us. We believe that rather than have you come and speak before a group of 20 to 50 people you would rather have a quiet evening alone in a hotel or make an engagement to speak to a larger group.

Trusting this cancellation of our date has not caused you inconvenience, and that we will be able to call upon you at some future date when we can guarantee a much larger congregation,
I remain

Dear Brother Page:

Mrs. S
3-14

Dr. Victor Hugo Sword has been speaking in Kansas City the past week. He is an interesting speaker, a friend of E. Stanley Jones, and has had recent conferences with governmental officials in Washington D. C. He is also President of Baptist Union of India, Burma, Ceylon, and is on the Ex. Committee of the Student Christian Movement of India and Holt Christian Council of India.

While talking with him I referred to you several times and ask him if he was going to speak in Los Angeles as if he was I wanted to advise you of such. He said, no, that he was speaking in Oakland; but, that he was going through Los Angeles and added that he thought he would telephone you when he reached there. I thought this letter would give you a few hours to think of any questions you might like to ask him, if he calls.

Enclosed give dollars in the hope that you might be able to supply me with two of your letters that I especially want and have been unable to acquire. First, "Jesus or Christianity"; Second, "The Personality of Jesus." And don't send me any change back!

Do you know when you will be through this section of the country again. We are having a Peace Institute here April 14th, 15th, & 16th. We are tentatively planning on having John Nevin Sayre, Cho W Blackburn, and James Farmer as speakers.

I am enclosing a post card with the suggestion that your name as author and Christian minister of 3.

La Habra, California might have some effect on this committee.

I want you to have the blessing of happiness in knowing that there is great joy that is in my heart each day as I think of you.
You see, you and your book were the channel through which came my first understanding, in any real sense, of God. Some day we will sit down, and I will tell you all about it. My constant

The "Dreadful Expedient"

The score and more of well known American clergymen, peace workers and others who have given their support to Vera Brittain's anguished protest against the "dreadful expedients" of the air war on Germany are wrestling with the oldest and most insoluble problem of philosophy and ethics—the basic problem of good and evil—but they are wrestling with it even more helplessly than most in this world which evil has made so terrible. What civilized mind does not recoil from the horrors and agonies which the Allied bombs scatter as they fall? But of what use is it to cry out one's "grave and mounting anxiety," to exclaim that "the public authorities" should be apprised of these emotions, to issue calls "for repentance"? There could be no more futile an evasion of the moral issue. "Anxieties" and "repentance" are no substitute for decision; "public authorities" can relieve no one of the responsibility of facing for himself the facts as they exist or making the bitter choices which are all that the real world presents.

That responsibility cannot be evaded by words, however humanely meant. To accept Miss Brittain's argument that only "absolute certainty" that the bombing will shorten the war can justify the continuance of the air war in itself involves a terrible responsibility—for the hundreds of thousands of Allied lives, for the added years of torture and misery that might have to be given while waiting for "certainty" in a world where nothing is certain. Most would prefer to reverse the dictum and say that bombing cannot be halted short of absolute certainty that it will not save a single Allied life or lessen the war's length by a single day. But no argument—not even the argument from the enormous sufferings which the Germans and Japanese, who willed the war, have inflicted upon mankind—can supply a final answer to the problem of evil. One thing only we know. It is that an immense evil has been released upon the world which can only be fought by those who have the will and courage to fight it. Perhaps the problem cannot be answered. But the decision can be escaped by none.

Dear Kirby:

Your note and the information regarding summer retreats came several days ago. I must report that at present Mrs. Hunter and I do not think that we shall be able to attend one of these retreats. The ones nearest us come early in the summer, and our only possible time for a vacation would be in the late summer. I am keeping the schedule and shall ask for a reservation even at the eleventh hour if we find it possible to attend.

I have been hoping that you would come this way again sometime this spring. People are going very rapidly, especially the young people to the Army and to work opportunities. It seems that before long we shall have mostly children and the older people. The first people to find work outside were those who went to factory and day labor jobs. Now the movement is toward farms. Those who had business establishments on the West Coast and professional people like dentists are finding it the most difficult to establish themselves outside.

The fact that more than twenty thousand people have gone from these centers without being insulted by anybody outside is evidence that the American people are accepting them in a rather remarkable way. This is encouraging; if it were not for certain agitators, the movement would be much easier. Of late, I have been most distressed, because a great many people have requested expatriation and repatriation without having the least interest in Japan or any antagonism toward America. They simply do not feel that they can make a go of it if they follow WRA resettlement program and locate as families since they do not speak English.

Please come this way if you can. I think that the evacuees need a message from you. I know that I do.

Sincerely,

J.B.H.
Joseph B. Hunter

Dear Kirby,

Under separate cover I am sending you some extra copies of Vera Brittain's article on Bombing with the Foreword which you have signed. It got excellent publicity yesterday in THE NEW YORK TIMES, THE HERALD TRIBUNE, and THE SUN. THE HERALD TRIBUNE this morning devotes its leading editorial to us. Mrs. Roosevelt in her WORLD TELEGRAM column of yesterday and Daniel Poling in THE TIMES of this morning go after us. Doubtless there will be other attacks, but I believe that time will justify our stand.

Needless to say the Fellowship is deeply grateful for your help in this testimony and so much else.

Dear Dr. Page:

Your invitation for Mrs. MacCluer and me to attend one of your spiritual retreats has been received.

We have a son who left a very fine position where he was safe from the draft, and a wife and child, to serve his country in the United States Navy. He was at Tarawa, Cape Gloucester, and as near as we can figure out is today at the Admiralty Islands. He is out there possibly because men like you brought a lot of influence on our government to keep us disarmed and unprepared for the war that many of us saw was coming.

Having looked over the list of men participating in your retreat, and seeing the names of some who I feel have no message for loyal Americans, I do not believe Mrs. MacCluer and I care to attend your spiritual retreat. I would suggest that they not be held and that you retire from the scene until the war is over.

Very truly yours,

Dear Dr. Page:

Thank you very kindly for your letter which I received some time ago. Not knowing if I could attend your Retreat I have purposely postponed sending my application. Even at this time I am not certain of the matter, but in order to show my interest I am enclosing my application blank. According to your letter it is not binding, I understand. As you must know by this time, the life of the Japanese in relocation centers is very uncertain. We cannot plan anything definitely. We do not know what will happen a month after this. I am hoping that I shall be able to be with your group this summer if at all possible. However, let me repeat again that I have not been able to make my plans for the summer as yet.

Thank you again for your interest. Our church work is moving along fairly well in spite of many handicaps. Please continue to remember us in your prayers.

Gratefully yours,

C.P.S. Camp # 59
McKinley, Oregon
March 24, 1944.

Mr. Kirby Page
La Habra, California.

Dear Mr. Page,

I am writing to you concerning several matters, and I hope that you will have the time to consider my various requests, which I put forth without even knowing you.....or more accurately, without our knowing me. I say that, because I remember very well your visit to our camp (Elkton) last year, and the pleasure that I had in listening to you. I believe that it was one of your books that decided me on my present C.P.S. career, and your son-in-law, Walt Raitt and I are fairly well acquainted, as I am an ex-Pasadena Junior College man. So I feel like I knew you very well, after all.

First, I got some copies of an article by you that was originally printed in The Christian Century from Walt Raitt, and I am now interested in getting more of these re-prints as I have distributed all the ones he gave me. I mean the one "Empty The Relocation Centers!" If you have any additional copies available for distribution, I could use about 30 of them.

I also wanted to ask your advice on the use of such material. I am a member of the So. Calif. American Civil Liberties Union, and see by their newspaper that they are starting to ask for the return of the evacuees to their homes now, on the basis that military necessity no longer requires their continued detention. In as much as you are more in touch with the situation, perhaps you could advise me if a letter-writing campaign to friends and relatives urging the return of the evacuees would be a timely thing to do now. I can write to 35 or 40 friends that I know, sending them a copy of your article, and a personal letter urging them to do all they can to help empty the relocation centers. If you feel that this is the right time for such a campaign on a large scale, I'm sure that I could get other C.P.S. men here to do the same.

Secondly, I am looking toward the problems of re-settlement of the Japanese-Americans. They will have many problems, and some hostility to overcome.....especially those who return to California. Men released from C.P.S. at the end of the war will also have economic difficulties. Therefore I am very much interested in a suggestion that Japanese-Americans released from the concentration camps get together with ex-C.P.S. men and form co-operative communities. I would like to see one established somewhere in Los Angeles county, and would like to belong to it also. The Japanese-Americans are excellent farmers and good business men. The C.P.S. men have had several years of experience in communal living. With these combined, such a co-operative community would have a sound economic base and would also have a strong unity within the group. Each group could learn from the other group in a short time. By having ex-C.P.S. men in the community, it would not become known as "that Jap place" and the Caucasian members could do most of the meeting of the public until smooth public relations had been established. There are disadvantages as well as advantages to such an inter-racial co-operative community set-up, but it seems to me that the advantages out-weigh the disadvantages by far.

Please send a dozen

I would welcome your comments on this proposed plan, favorable or unfavorable. If you happen to know of any Japanese-Americans who are co-operative minded I would like to get in touch with them. The same for any C.P.S. men. I feel that if such things are possible and advisable, the interested parties should be doing some investigating and planning now. Much preliminary planning and work will have to be done, and as much of it should be done before the people are released; because when we are released is when we will need to start functioning as a community.

It was Harold Grey, I believe, who did something similar after World War I. I have never known what kind of a co-operative it was that Harold Grey started, but if it was similar enough to what I am interested in to be of some help to me to know about it, perhaps you could suggest how I could get in touch with someone who could tell me about it. Perhaps I should best write to Harold Grey. Do you know his address?

Today I am also writing the Fellowship of Reconciliation on this same subject. I hope that they will be able to help me with information and advice also, because as you know, that group is rather co-operative minded also.

Well, I hope that I have not unduely imposed myself on you. I will deeply appreciate any information or advice that you would be able to give me, and I shall wait anxiously to hear from you. Best wishes.

Yours most sincerely,

Mr. Kirby Page,
C/o The Kansas Institute of International Relations,
Friends University,
Wichita, Kans.

Dear Mr. Page:

I take the liberty of addressing this letter to you in a kind and Christian spirit. I grant that you are sincere but I doubt that you are right, in some of your positions and some of your conclusions.

In regard to the Negro question, I would make these comments that you may or may not agree with.

1. That each Negro, or any other person white, yellow or black must be dealt with on an "individual" basis. We should no more make a blanket acceptance of all Negroes than we should make a blanket denial of them all. Some are worthy while others are not just as that is true of our own race. People are incontrovertibly unequal. No two people are exactly equal mentally, physically or morally. Therefor we pick and we chose those with whom we care to associate with. We should do the same with the Negro.
2. Equality in all of it's aspects must be earned and deserved. We expect a white man to earn and deserve it. We do not go to any white doctor; we go to those whom we believe, either rightly or wrongly, to be the best, those who have earned and who deserve our confidence. Negroes must act civil if they expect to be treated civil. When they do, we should. We should ~~and~~ they don't.
3. Equality must be obtained in an evolutionary manner. Fundamental changes must come gradually to avoid terrific friction. If they come in any other manner, race riots are the answer. The people are not ready, and they respond violently and usually, wrongly. After all they must be ready for the position of equality before they can fill it. We too must be ready and educated to it.

In regard to winning the Peace, I have these thoughts after hearing your two evening lectures in Arkansas City.

1. The present German Junker-Nazis and the Shinto Japanese can't be trusted because they have not been "properly" educated or as you might say "indoctrinated". It is therefore necessary to disarm them, to put into power the democratic element, and to "educate" by all possible means the youth and the adults of those nations to the Christian Democratic Ideal. This calls for wise, kind and helpful administration. Also firm administration. Unfriendly elements must be kept down by force until sufficient friendly elements can be educated and put into power. When the re-educated friendly elements are sufficiently strong the task of handling the gangsters of that nation should be turned over to them. It is our "business", as world citizens, to see that Gangsterism, Hitlerism, Shintoism or any other similar ism does not get started either here in the U.S.A. or in any other nation. It is a weed that must be eradicated from the garden of the world.

2. A negotiated peace is not desireable. The war must be Won before we can have any chance of building a decent world. A negotiated peace would be a false peace, a lull in the fighting, an appeasement (that didn't work), an armistice because a negotiated peace would leave the Gangsters and their philosophy in power in those countries and they would immediately start to prepare for a continuation of the war as soon as they thought that they could see their way clear to victory. We would not have peace but a worse war and slavery if we lost because they will not be guided by our "Christian" ideals. For Christian Ideals to have a chance we must win the war. We are fighting for that which is right and in this sense it is a holy war. It is right to fight for the right. That is why we are in this war. Read the Bible and you will see that Christ fought verbally, mentally, morally and even physically for that which he thought to be right. He fought for the right as He saw the right. He counselled submission where that was proper but not in all things. Let us finish this war so that we can have a clear clean chance to build a better world. It is the only way that will work. The way of "trusting" a maniac with a gun definitely will not work. We have to take it away from him and treat him in a proper manner.
3. As to the winners falling out among themselves and starting a new war: That is the danger to be avoided if it is humanly possible. Russia, England^{China} and America must make every effort to solve any and all problems in an atmosphere of good will and cordiality, namely, unselfishly. This is asking a good deal but it is not an impossibility. Nations have been unselfish in the past. We were, with China; and we can be again with them, with Russia, with England and with anyone else if we are wise.
4. The argument that because we were guilty of error in the past we should not condemn Germany or Japan in their errors is fallacious. They have no right to do the things that they have done and what they have done is wrong and must be resisted. Because we might have done the same thing in the past does not in the least justify them. We shouldn't have done it either and we were wrong then. We dare not, we must not do it again. Aggression is wrong. Winning the war and putting the world to rights is another matter and is not aggression. It is merely putting an end to aggression and giving the world a chance to retain Christian Civilization. Because "you" rob a man does not justify, or make right, my robbing one also. If I resist you and prevent your robbing him, I have done a good deed. I am not a sinner for having resisted evil for if I had stood by and let the crime go on in my sight, I, too, would be guilty. Guilty of the sin of omission, of not doing right, of not upholding the right. Jesus said "Greater Love hath no man than that he lay down his life for his friend". That is what our soldiers are doing for us. They are saving the lives of millions of people from the forces of barbarism. Let us honor them and uphold them and build a real peace based on reality and idealism, both.

Yours truly,
Jefferson Schlesinger

Dear Mrs. Page:

Thank you for your letter of March 14th. I talked with Kirby in Topeka last Sunday and his health seemed to be agreeing with the traveling. He had a capacity reception at all three of the meetings there. There was good seed sown and profound interest shown.

I told him of my hope to attend the Spiritual Retreats at Boone, Iowa; Lake Geneva, Wisconsin; and Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. I want to combine these three with a visit to relatives near Chicago. It will all fit into one trip nicely. He said to send word to you.

It was wonderful to see & talk with him again, even though time went fast. I also look forward with pleasant anticipation to the day when I may see and talk with you also.

In your letter you asked if there were any other titles I would like to have. I do not have a complete library of Kirby Page's works but I certainly would like to have—

I especially would like to have a library of the pamphlets listed below. Copies that are torn, soiled, faulty in print & etc. will be O.K. if you have no others to spare as I certainly would be happy to have them in any condition that is readable, as I have none of these now.

- Christianity & World Problems (Series)
(I understand this series has 20 or more #'s.)
- Christianity & Industry (Series)
(13 or more #'s.)

- Some recent
- Christianity & Personal Problems (series)
(9 or more #'s.) (Please send several of #7 in this series if you can.)
 - Federal Council of Churches (series)
(Send all #'s I have)
 - National Conference on the Christian
Way of Life (series)
(4 or more #'s.)

Books I do not have but certainly would like to have are:

- Living Triumphant 1934
- Individualism & Capitalism 1933
- Christianity & Economic Problems 1922
(proposal for Federal Council of Churches)
- The Sword or the Cross 1921
- Something More 1920

- Books I have but loan out and would like another copy if you have sufficient supply —
- Must We Go To War? 1937
- Living Courageously 1936
- Personality of Jesus 1932
- Jesus or Christianity 1929 (2 copies)

I do not know how much the ft pamphlets and books will amount to.
I am sending 5⁰⁰ as part payment. Please send me a bill for the amount of the balance.
I expect I will cause you quite a bit of work finding the pamphlets so I want to extend my thanks and appreciation for your kindness.

Cordially yours,
Wm. H. Schenck
